

Cornerstone Christian School New Student Registration

New Student Academic Requirements (1st – 8th grades):

- 2.5 Grade Point Average (a report card for the previous is required and must show both semester's grades)
- Most recent achievement/standardized test results showing student testing at grade level

Testing (all entrance testing will begin in May)

All incoming students (K-8) are required to take an entrance exam prior to registering.

- A testing form must be completed in the Main Office
- All academic documentation must be presented (current report card and standardized testing results)
- The $150 testing must be paid to secure a testing date
- After payment is received, a testing date will be assigned.

Once the entrance exam has been administered and evaluated, parents are notified of the student's admission status.

Completing Registration

Upon admission acceptance, the following information and forms are required:

First through Eighth Grades
